

Assemblance

by Gary Hardaway

I have no original thoughts and thus must scavenge the publicized thoughts of others in order to have a mind.
I assemble myself daily from the ready-mades of a fast talking world, a Frankenstein and his Monster stitched together as one.

The scarring is atrocious.

