

Otherwise Chaos

by Jerry Ratch

I know where the soul Lies hidden, it's Hidden in the eyes

And your eyes have history They're bigger than The heart

Which is only Emotion
That passes in the night

While the soul goes On and on Into history

"First," I heard her saying, into her cell phone
"I had two men in my life
"Now, I have no men in my life"

Like a refrain
Passing in the night
Passing in the night

"It's okay"
Her psychic from Santa Fe
Said on the speaker phone:

"live
and love
and create

otherwise chaos"
