

Haiku Life

by Larry Strattner

A funny thing this life
Happening to us in turn Unexpectedly

I touch you gently
You look, your eyes a question
We dance together

Cavorting we find
In fun, a different feeling
Love blossoms for us

We stand together
At the altar speaking vows
We are beyond them

We love our children
A blessing of our own love
Our lives are fullness

Our children's children
Play and laugh before us now
Amazing beings

We sit in twilight
Our eyes still dance together
In our happiness

Laughter in our lives
A Celestial bonus card
We drew at random
