" I Know Bernie, I Can Get You In."

by Doug Holder

* * Dedicated to Bernie Maddoff

There was a long line at the men's room. You know, when men reach a certain age, there is an urgency to their frequent trips. So I saw an opportunity I said: " I know Bernie I can get you in."

"Really?," they said but I played it coy "It ain't easy Bernie doesn't let just anyone take a quick trip to the head."

" But you can get us in, right? They forced money in my oh-so reluctant hand, and stampeded to the portals of the much lauded urinals.

There was the mark of blood lust in their eyes " We know Bernie they velled," and pounded on the still-locked door.

Available online at «http://fictionaut.com/stories/doug-holder/i-know-bernie-i-

Copyright © 2011 Doug Holder. All rights reserved.

They wound up doing it on the floor.