

Nathaniel

by Jowell Tan

sometimes you frustrate me, sometimes you make me mad sometimes you drain me, sometimes you make me tired sometimes i have to be in the other room just so i can breathe easy away from you.

but other times you amuse me, other times you make me laugh other times you hug me other times you make me warm other times i find myself looking into your eyes and thinking "eh, this life's my favourite life".
